WESTMINSTER PRESS Books for the Christian Home

HOW CHRISTIAN PARENTS FACE FAMILY PROBLEMS

By J. C. WYNN. Sound common-sense advice on the problems of discipline, finances, dating, mixed marriage, etc., that can confront almost any family in America today. Written from the point of view that Christian parents have special insights and divine resources for guidance. $2.50

OPENING THE DOOR FOR GOD

By HERMAN J. SWEET. A practical manual for parents on the Christian guidance of children, laying emphasis upon the parents' own faith and life, rather than upon cut-and-dried answers to children's questions. $1.50

TOWARD SPIRITUAL SECURITY

E. WESNER FALLAW. This is a book of vital interest to all who wish to learn the satisfactions of emotional and spiritual health. Dr. Fallaw shows how individuals may work toward spiritual security in neighborhood, family, and church. $3.00

FIVE MINUTES A DAY

Compiled by ROBERT E. SPEER. Prayers, Bible verses, and poems for individual use or family worship, so arranged that one can begin using the book at any time. Includes 23 pages of readings for special days. $1.25

THE WESTMINSTER PRESS, Philadelphia 7

Layman's Theological Library

General Editor, ROBERT McAFEE BROWN. 12 volumes written for laymen, covering the main areas of Christian faith and practice. The first two titles are now available:

THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE CHURCH

By ROBERT McAFEE BROWN. The work of the church in the modern world, its mission in the life of man, and its place in the historical heritage of the Protestant faith. Only $1

MODERN RIVALS TO CHRISTIAN FAITH

By CORNELIUS LOEW. A thought-provoking book about the "false gods" (among them science, democracy, and exaggerated patriotism) that many well-meaning Christians tend to substitute for the one true God. Only $1

The first such workshop attempted along this line, it had as its leaders Robert Leslie, professor of pastoral psychology and counseling at Pacific School of Religion, Berkeley, Calif.; Virginia Stafford, director of Methodist work with older adults, Nashville; and several psychiatrists, physicians and ministers from the Pacific northwest. Arrangements were made with Unit No. 2 of the King County hospital for practical visitation each afternoon during the workshop.

Church Council Holds Festival of Faith

The general board of the Washington-Northern Idaho council of churches met at Moses Lake Oct. 27-28 in conjunction with the Festival of Faith sponsored by the Central Columbia Basin council of churches. Moses Lake, in the center of the fast-growing Columbia basin, has increased in population 205 per cent in the past six years. The festival featured seminars on such subjects as "Making the Sunday School Vital," "Organizing the Women of the Church," "What to Do for Teen-agers" and "How to Finance a Church." A report on the findings of a re-study of the Columbia basin was presented by Arthur L. Frederick, director of the state council's research department and professor of religion at the College of Puget Sound, Tacoma.

And So Forth

Declaring that alcoholism is a disease and that the churches have a responsibility to help solve the problems it raises, the Episcopal diocese of Olympia sponsored institutes on alcoholism during November in Seattle, Tacoma, Snohomish and Vancouver. On the discussion panels were instructors in psychiatry and clergymen.

A three-state audiovisual workshop in Christian education was held here Oct. 18-20 under sponsorship of the audiovisual department of the Washington-Northern Idaho council of churches. Sixty-two delegates from 19 communities attended the sessions.

William M. Kelly, a University of Washington graduate, has been appointed director of Westminster House, Presbyterian student center at his alma mater. Mr. Kelly was for seven and a half years field executive for the Presbyterian synod of Illinois and served two pastorates there.

A new position on the faculty of the College of Puget Sound, that of director of religious activities, has been filled by the appointment of Robert G. Albertson, pastor of Asbury Methodist Church in Tacoma. Mr. Albertson will teach two freshman classes in religious orientation, besides training youth for religious living and action.

GERTRUDE L. APEL.

Food Stores in Dayton End Business on Sunday

Major food chain stores in Dayton, Ohio, where church groups have taken a strong stand against Sunday business, are now closed on Sundays—for the first time in a year. Officials of three chains operating about 50 stores in the area said the stores were closed "in the best interest of the community."

Offer Church Services In Esperanto

In connection with the Esperanto Congress attended by 2,200 people from 40 countries in Copenhagen, Denmark, this summer, Roman Catholic and Lutheran services were held with the sermon, liturgy and hymns in Esperanto. The Catholic service was in the Church of St. Ansgar, the Protestant in Copenhagen cathedral.

The Church Roll

Alan Walker, Australian evangelist who has been leading a year-long "mission to America" for the U.S. Methodist Board of Evangelism, is to be visiting professor of homiletics and evangelism at Boston University school of theology for the semester starting in February.

Clement E. Hubbard, a Methodist missionary, is the first Protestant to be named an "honorary citizen" of Lins, a city of 30,000 in interior Brazil, an area predominantly Roman Catholic. Mr. Hubbard first went to Brazil in 1921. In 1928 he founded the American Institute of Lins, whose enrollment has since grown to over 2,000.

Two men connected with (Lutheran) Andhra Christian College in Guntur, India, are members of India's delegation to the United Nations: T. S. Paulus, principal of the school and formerly secretary of the Andhra Evangelical Lutheran Church of India; and K. Raghuramaiah, president of the college's alumni association and a member of the Indian parliament.

Harold Haas, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church, Jersey City, N. J., has been appointed executive secretary of the United Lutheran Church's Board of Social Missions.

L. Scott Allen, pastor of Central Methodist Church, Atlanta, has been elected editor of the Central Christian Advocate, official organ of the Methodist Central (Negro) jurisdiction. Publication offices are in New Orleans.

Among recent deaths: Behrend Mehrtens, professor of religion at Hartwick College, Oneonta, N. Y., who had served the United Lutheran Church in many capacities as pastor and administrator, formerly chaplain and head of the department of religion at Rutgers University, on Nov. 21, at the age of 63. . . . Clinton S. Quin, retired Protestant Episcopal bishop of Texas, on Nov. 29, at the age of 73. Bishop Quin founded the first chapter of Alcoholics Anonymous west of the Mississippi, in Houston, in 1941. . . . Ottora Horne, Presbyterian, U.S.A., missionary in Lebanon for 37 years prior to her retirement in 1939, in Wooster, Ohio, on Nov. 23, at the age of 87. Miss Horne had been respectively teacher, principal and treasurer of the American School for Girls in Beirut.

to the American Churches:

The tragic situation resulting from the fight for liberty in Hungary is a pressing challenge to Protestant churches in the United States.

Thousands are dependent upon our aid for emergency shelter, food and clothing and for resettlement and rehabilitation — an emergency demanding our quick and fullest help.

Our churches have developed a full program for the relief and resettlement of refugees from Hungary and Eastern Europe. These ministries will be carried on through regular denominational representatives abroad, through the World Council of Churches, and by Church World Service.

The scope of this program is so large as to require generous support of all of the churches.

For present needs for these ministries at least $2,000,000 is required.

Will you make every effort — as immediately and strongly as possible — in support of this urgent cause?

Funds should be contributed from local churches to denominational headquarters or agencies for overseas relief and reconstruction designated for Hungarian and eastern European refugees.
